A Message from Pastor's desk:

Lent: Springtime of the Spirit

The Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy (Sacrosanctum Concilium, December 4, 1963) is a beautiful document by Vatican Council II. This document on the liturgy talks about the two-fold character of the Lenten Season. The first character of the Lenten Season is that it recalls our baptismal promises and reminds us to remain faithful to the teachings of Jesus. In other words, the Lenten Season is meant to help us seek the Lord with all our heart and with all our soul and with all our mind and with all our strength (Mark 12:30). We all seek God and love God, but we do that halfheartedly, and God is not often the center of our lives. During the Season of Lent, we are called to review our relationship with God and also with one another. We are asked to make our relationship with God stronger and healthier. According to the Council document, the second characteristic of Lent is that it stresses the penitential spirit. That means the Season of Lent is considered a season of penance and prayer. It is a time to repent of our sins. It is a time to do penance for the forgiveness of our sins. It is a time to discipline ourselves and control our passions.

Emperor Alexander the Great had a teacher called Diogenes. One day, Alexander said to Diogenes: "Teacher, you should be proud of me because I am the master of the world." Then Diogenes said with a smile, "You are also a slave to your passions." Alexander the Great was a great leader, and he was almost like the master of the world. But he was also a slave to his passions. Like Alexander the Great, most of us are slaves to our passions. Even though we claim to be independent and strong, we are often weak, and we fall into temptations. Lent is the time to discipline ourselves and overcome our passions and weaknesses through prayer, fasting, and penance. It is really the springtime of the spirit. As prophet Joel says, it is a time to re-turn to the Lord with fasting, weeping, and mourning. It is the time to taste the goodness of the Lord; it is the prime time for God in our lives. It is the time to seal our determination to forgive our enemies by sincerely praying for their spiritual and physical welfare and for the grace that they need for their conversion and renewal of life. Someone once said that the tragedy in our life is that things are broken; the tragedy is that things are not mended after they are broken. Well, Lent is a time for us to mend broken things and our broken relationship with God and one another.

As we began the Season of Lent by receiving ashes on our foreheads, let us make a commitment to mend our broken relationships, especially our relationship with God. Let us try to return to the Lord with our whole heart and receive healing and forgiveness from Him during this Season of Lent.

 We pray for those who have suffered harm from members of the Church; may they find within the Church herself a concrete response to their pain and suffering.

Lenten Retreat

"Dust, Thou Art Splendor"
Rev. Dr. Thomas Kalam, CMI

March 8, 2023
 OLPH
 Mass 5:30 PM
 Refreshments 6:00 PM
 Presentation 6:30 PM

We are created from dust, but in God's image. Salvation ultimately means that dust in us rising to the image of God in us—Deification (theosis), as the fathers of the church used to describe it. Lent is a time we concentrate on ways of becoming more and more in God's image—Penance is whatever creates the warmth of divine love in us.
