SEPTEMBER ANNOUNCEMENTS

What Are the Seven Sorrows of Mary

We tend to think of Mary as the Sorrowful Mother during Lent. We know from Scripture that she was there, standing at the foot of the Cross with the Apostle John. She's mentioned twice when we pray the Stations of the Cross – in the Fourth Station, when she meets her Son on the way to Golgotha and in the Thirteenth Station when Jesus' dead body in placed in her arms. Also during Lent, we sing or pray the Stabat Mater, a medieval Latin hymn describing Mary's terrible sorrow over her Son's suffering. It's hard not to think of Mary as we contemplate our Lord's Passion and Crucifixion.

In that respect, it's fitting that the Memorial of Our Lady of Sorrows take place the day after the Feast of the Exaltation of the Holy Cross, observed annually on September 14. On that day, we celebrate the finding of the True Cross by St. Helena in the fourth century and its veneration throughout the centuries since. On the Memorial of Our Lady of Sorrows, we venerate the Mother of the Crucified One in appreciation of the terrible grief she endured as her Son suffered.

But, that's not the only sorrow Mary endured, and it's not the only one we honor on this feast day.

There are seven.

These seven sorrows were foretold by Simeon in the Temple when he encountered the Holy Family at the Presentation of Jesus.

Now there was a man in Jerusalem whose name was Simeon. This man was righteous and devout, awaiting the consolation of Israel, and the holy Spirit was upon him. It had been revealed to him by the holy Spirit that he should not see death before he had seen the Messiah of the Lord.

He came in the Spirit into the temple; and when the parents brought in the child Jesus to perform the custom of the law in regard to him, he took him into his arms and blessed God, saying:

"Now, Master, you may let your servant go in peace, according to your word, for my eyes have seen your salvation, which you prepared in sight of all the peoples, a light for revelation to the Gentiles, and glory for your people Israel."

The child's father and mother were amazed at what was said about him; and Simeon blessed them and said to Mary his mother, "Behold, this child is destined for the fall and rise of many in Israel, and to be a sign that will be contradicted and you yourself a sword will pierce so that the thoughts of many hearts may be revealed." (Lk 2:25-35)

The feast of Our Lady of Sorrows dates back to the twelfth century. Since at least that time, Catholics have recognized seven events in the life of Mary that caused her great sorrow. That is why the image of Mary as Our Lady of Sorrows often shows her with seven swords piercing her Immaculate Heart. She's also sometimes represented by a winged heart pierced with seven swords. The swords represent her grievous sorrows. Known as the Seven Dolors of Mary, these sorrows are:

1. The prophecy of Simeon (Luke 2:25-35)
2. The flight into Egypt (Matthew 2:13-15)
3. Loss of the Child Jesus for three days (Luke 2:41-50)
4. Mary meets Jesus on his way to Calvary (Luke 23:27-31; John 19:17)
5. Crucifixion and Death of Jesus (John 19:25-30)
6. The body of Jesus being taken from the Cross (Psalms 130; Luke 23:50-54; John 19:31-37)
7. The burial of Jesus (Isaiah 53:8; Luke 23:50-56; John 19:38-42; Mark 15:40-47)

That's a lot for one woman to endure in a lifetime! Yet, Mary wasn't just another woman; she was the woman chosen by God to bear his Son. With that great joy and responsibility also came great sorrow. Along with her great joy and sorrow came great love – for each one of us as her children. This is what our Lord asked of her ask he hung dying on the Cross – to become Mother to all humankind. Love is what gave her the courage to accept Simeon's prophecy. Love is what gave her the strength to embrace each sword as it pierced her heart. Love is what urged here to accept her Son's dying request. Love is what compels her to continue caring for us tenderly, limitlessly, and faithfully.

2020 Holy Land Collection

Pope Francis has asked our parish to support the Pontifical Good Friday Collection, which supports Christians in the Holy Land. This collection was postponed this year due to the COVID-19 pandemic, it will be taken up the weekend of September 12/13. Your support helps the church minister in parishes, provide Catholic schools, and offer religious education in the Holy Land. The Pontifical Good Friday Collection also assists with the preservation of sacred shrines. Wars, unrest, and instability have been especially hard on Christians, and this collection provides humanitarian aid to refugees. When you contribute to the Pontifical Good Friday Collection, you become an instrument of peace and join with Catholics around the world in solidarity with the Church in the Holy Land. For more information about Christians in the Holy Land, visit www.myfranciscan.org/good-friday.

Catholic Higher Education

The weekend of September 19/20 our parish will take up the annual collection for Catholic higher education. Catholic colleges and universities strive to form students in the spirit of faith and educate them in the richness of the Catholic intellectual tradition. This collection supports the Catholic University of America as well the two Catholic universities in our Archdiocese – Bellarmine University and Spalding University.

Mass Intentions Needed

The Sacrament of the Holy Mass can be offered for a deceased or living loved one. You can mail your Mass Intention request, use a Mass Intention envelope located at the church exits or drop it by the parish office. The suggested offering is $10.00 per Mass Intention.

OLPH Religious Ed. Classes

OLPH online CCD will begin the week of September 8th (after Labor Day) using the Faith & Life series and the mycatholicfaithdelivered.com platform. This is an excellent online platform and easy to use for our students. Watch your email for information from DRE Alicia Riggs and from the parish office on the program.

OLH Religious Ed. Registration

Parents with students in the OLH CCD program last term have been mail R.E. Registration forms. Please return your child's registration as soon as possible. If you did not receive a form, please contact the parish office. For questions on Religious Ed. contact Janice Shipp.

Welcome Newly Ordained Deacon

Jimmy Richerson

Jim felt called to become a Deacon and began discerning a permanent vocation in 2014. Both Jim and Therese attended monthly evening meetings at various churches nearly every other month within the archdiocese to learn more.

Jimmy and Therese started the application phase for the Permanent Diaconate in January 2015.

In addition to the paper application, they were required to provide reference letters, undergo background checks, psychological testing for both of them and to privately meet with Archbishop Kurtz to discuss the possibility of a calling to the diaconate.

Spouses were required to submit a letter to the Archbishop indicating their support and commitment to attend all classes during formation.

Jimmy and Therese were accepted in the program along with 30 other couples and started July 2015 in their Aspirancy Year.

Deacon formation included annual retreats at Saint Meinrad Seminary, one Saturday of Aspirancy instruction provided monthly by the archdiocese, and four years of Candidate instruction in graduate level theology courses toward a Master's Degree provided by Saint Meinrad Theological Seminary Instructors. Classes met one full weekend each month (Friday evenings, all day and evening Saturdays, and half a day Sundays until noon) at the Flaget Center in Louisville.

Jimmy along with 17 classmates celebrated their ordination on August 29th at Saint Patrick's in Louisville.

We are happy to announcement that Jimmy has been assigned to our parishes at Our Lady of Perpetual Help, Our Lady of the Hills and Our Lady of Fatima.
